PREFACE

Alhamdulillaahirabbil'alamin, praise be to Allah SWT for His grace and blessings, so that the author is given the power to complete the final task with the title " designing distribution routes of FMCG product in pt abc with multi-trip vehicle routing problem and time window using branch and bound method to minimize travel distance " as one of the requirements in completing the S-1 Industrial Engineering at Telkom University.

Thanks for all the part of the author who have contributed in supporting and helping, in whole of the process in finalizing this final project, namely:

1. Mr. Ari Yanuar Ridwan, as my first advisor and also Mr. Rio Aurachman as my second advisor for all the patients, giudance, and experience that give to me, its helping the author so much.

2. Mrs. Pupung, as Supply Chain Manager in Barry Callebout company who always suppporting the author in completing the data needed in finishing the final project and for always give a suggestion for this research