

TRAVEL DOCUMENTARY TELEVISION PROGRAM PRODUCTION

“KE LAMPUNG GEH!”

(TELUK KILUAN EPISODE)

Abstract:

The presence of television in the world has great influence to human life. Television became a media that is accepted by various levels of society. Television brings a wide range of information, messages that can spread rapidly all over the world. Aside from being a medium of information and messages, television has also become an alternative choice in finding the entertainment within easy reach. The rapid development of the television industry in Indonesia, especially with the appearance of wide variety local stations in the region, increased the options for people to get local content. Lampung province has a lot of natural beauty. One of them is the Kiluan Bay. Kiluan Bay has natural beauties, one which we can see dolphins in the open sea. By using a DSLR camera, everything is delivered through a travel documentary television program with the title "Ke Lampung Geh!".

Keywords: Travel Documentary Television Program, Television, Local Television, Lampung, Kiluan Bay.