

ABSTRACT

Now many once cases of theft in office, agencies or institutions. Security which installed in a computer cannot function when power supply unit (psu) disconnected, especially via software security. Power management system is a monitoring system of functionality electricity that could be observation from a distance. In this system furnished with officers power input so that it can be walk although the condition of a computer in the state of not connected power. Other than that, this system furnished with sensors current, voltage, gps and module communication so that it can be send data from a distance. The results of this system to display the data voltage, the current, the status of battery, and to display point coordinates of latitude and longitude on maps available to the web monitoring system.

Keywords: Power Management System, Monitoring, GPS, GPRS, Webservice, API and Database.