ABSTRACT

Application performance measurement employees the field of teaching is application performance evaluation of based on teacher attendance in learning activities. Application performance measurement employees the field of teaching serves to the division of teaching tasks teachers, schedule subjects, and assess performance based on the presence of teaching. During this performance assessment that is in SMK Negeri 3 Bandung based on a whole judgment the presence of, achievement, discipline, attitude and training in follow by teachers, no judgment its own in the plane of teaching. Then should they consider its own to the field of teaching to improve the quality of competence educator or teacher. The application was made with a method of using prototype of programming language php with framework codelgniter and use mysql database servers as. Users this application is admin, curriculum officers, teacher and vice principal part of the curriculum. And this application will use a method of testing using blackbox testing and user acceptance test (UAT). With the application performance measurement employees the field of this teaching will facilitate officers curriculum to give teaching tasks to the teacher and evaluate performance teachers for the presence of teaching.

Keywords : Application performance measurement employees the field of teaching, teaching tasks teachers, teacher attendance, performance appraisal, prototype