PREFACE

Alhamdulillahirrabil'alamin, all praise and gratitude be to Allah SWT, because by His Guidance and Blessing, the author can finish this mini thesis entitled "The Impact of Talent Management and Job Satisfaction towards Employee's Job Performance in School of Economic and Business of Telkom University".

The purpose of this mini thesis is proposed as one the requirements in obtaining the Bachelor Degree in Management International ICT Business program of Telkom University.

In the process of completing this mini thesis, the author realized that it can be finished by so much helps, supports, guidance, and direction from many people. Therefore, the author would like to express her thank to; Dr. Ratri Wahyuningtyas, ST.,MM as my Supervisor for her valuable time spent in giving guidance to the author with her insightful comment and encouragement during completing this mini thesis. To my guardian supervisor, Muhammad Azhari, many thanks for your assistance in every semester to help and guide me also for your kind and fast-response cooperation. A deepest love and appreciation for Mr. Yornas Effendi and Mrs. Enni Rita, as the parents of the author, my beloved sister Nikel Fehica, thanks for all the support, affection, attention, motivation, and financial, with all their faiths the author can complete this mini thesis. My lovely aunt, Enni Rice, who keep supporting and giving the motivation and reward to every steps that I have been passed to finish this mini thesis. My beloved friends, Zakiyah Ulfah and Dianty Khairunissa, thanks for always supporting me since the first semester as my classmate in Bandung until now with all your kindness in my academic process and best supporting friends in daily life. My dearest Shafira Anissa Putri, Tri Melisa Selviani, Vivi Andriani, and Zulian Vina thanks for all support even in a thousand miles away, you are the best friends everyone could ask for. All friends and other parties, thanks for all the supports, helps, and encouragement during completing this mini thesis.