

ABSTRACT

The Pharmacy Unit of the Indramayu District Health Office is a Technical Implementation Unit of the Indramayu District Health Office which is tasked with managing drugs, including planning, receiving, storing, distributing, recording, monitoring and evaluating drugs needed for health services at the Puskesmas.

The Drug Stock Management System Application at the Pharmacy Unit of the Indramayu District Health Office is an application that can be used to help manage drug stocks in the Pharmacy Unit of the Indramayu District Health Office. This application is a web-based application in running it.

Keywords: Health Office, Pharmacy Unit, Drug Stock Management System Application, Web-based Application