

LIST OF TERMS

- UI : Anything related to a system and a user engaging via commands or procedures in order to run the systems, input data, and use the contents is a User Interface.
- UX : User Experience refers to the overall experience related to the perception (emotion and thought), reaction, and behavior that a user feels and thinks through his or her direct or indirect use of systems, product, content or service.
- KKP : Kementrian Kelautan dan Perikanan or Ministry of Marine Affairs and Fisheries.
- MSME : Micro, Small and Medium Enterprises.
- SUS : System Usability Scale is a measuring tool that assesses the usefulness of a product.
- MVP : Minimum Viable Product is a product version that allows for future expansion iterations of Build-Measure-Learn.
- UML : Unified Modeling Language is a standard language for creating software design documents.
- IT : Information Technology.