

LIST OF TERMS AND SYMBOLS

- API : Application Programming Interface is a software intermediary that allows two applications to communicate with each other.
- B2B : Business to Business, is the activity of electronic business transactions between business people.
- BEP : The break-even point refers to the level of production at which total production revenue equals total production costs.
- Covid-19 : Corona virus disease-19, is a disease caused by a new coronavirus that was not previously identified by humans.
- DBMS : Database Management System, is an organizing system and database processing system on a computer.
- KKP : The Ministry of Maritime Affairs and Fisheries is a ministry within the Government of Indonesia in charge of marine and fisheries affairs.
- MVC : Model, View, Controller, is a method for creating applications by separating data from views and how to process them.
- MySQL : My Structure Query Language, is a relational database management system.
- PHP : Personal Home Page, is a script that is used to build a website-based application.
- ROI : Return on Investment is used to calculate the value of an investment.
- MSMEs : Micro Small and Medium Enterprises.
- UAT : User Acceptance Testing, is a software testing process by verifying that the solution that has been made is suitable for the user.
- UI : User Interface, is a visual display of a product that bridges the system with the user.
- UML : Unified Modeling Language, is a method in visual modeling that is used as a means of designing object-oriented systems.
- XP : Extreme Programming, is a software development process that aims to increase the quality of software and its adaptability to changing client needs.