

ABSTRACT

Bojongsoang Health Center is a community health center located in District of Bandung Regency Bojongsoang that provide health and medical services to the community Bojongsoang District. These health centers in planned future will be one of the General Hospital in Bandung Regency.

As one of the Leading Health Center in Bandung regency, Bojongsoang Health Center strives to provide service to patient satisfaction. Patient satisfaction becomes a priority because most business processes Bojongsoang Health Center will be associated directly with the patient. Based of these things then be made to a system that can manage data information of patients or employees at these facilities.

Bojongsoang Health Center Information System Development using Java Server Page technology (JSP) with the database MySq and built with the method waterfall.

Keywords: PHC Bojongsoang, Information Systems, JSP, MySQL, waterfall