

ABSTRACT

The Purpose of designing this web E-Commerce on Prosport Workshop is to expand marketing and facilitate buying and selling process, that means the sale of products can reach outside of the area and the sales of products more efficiency and effective.

This final project is to build an online sales system. System Designing on this application was developed by using some software that Sublime Text, Gammu, WAMPP Server which is a combination of the Apache Web Server, PHP and MySQL and in the making of this application using the Waterfall method. With this application users can handle online orders and the owner able to view reports of sales of their goods

Keywords: Application, E-Commerce, Online