ABSTRACT

Feel safe is one important needed for human being on facing nowadays technology ages. Curiosity of situation or condition of home, office or building is an important factor in developing a home, office, or building security system. Because of stealing and robbing cases incensement, so we need a home, office, or building security system which can prevent those actions. This is the trigger to make this application.

This application is staked as a danger alert notification receiver by sending photo of unknown person which got from the security camera. This application is also useful for monitoring and supervisor camera controller in home, office or building. This application can be used for opening, closing and locking home door. Even it can be used to activate danger alert alarm in home, office or building.

This application facilitates the house owner to prevent the criminal actions which are happening. This application only works on Android smartphone which use internet media as data communication with server computer.

The Application can be run in accordance with the function and can be implemented in various kinds of android smartphone.

Keyword: Android, security camera, notification