

ABSTRACT

Detective is one of the profession that required to find case information that being investigated in fast and comprehensive way. There are several device that used by detective to support and improve their performance, such as camera, laptop, smartphone, and so on.

Nowadays, smartphone is widely use to ease detective's work. Detective's wide scope of work, high mobility that require them to moving from one place to another, has made smartphone as a practical choice in doing intelligent's work.

Mobile Detective application is an application based on Android operating system. The output expected from this application is data (document and multimedia data about an event that can be categorized as evidence) collected from the field can be retrieve by the detective leader as a decision maker, so an immediate action can be taken in order to finish the case in fast and appropriate way.

Keywords : android, mobile, intelijen, database