ABSTRACT

Scholarship is an assistance program which is given from agency, where that assist is intended for the people who can't continue their study or the people who gets award. The scholarship program in a foundation, children can get scholarships from foster parents who choose them.

The purpose of web-based application for recording scholarship recipient is to easier entry data scholarhsip recipient, to see the foster children and foster parent's data, and to assist in the selection of foster children. In this application there are some menus, such as manage foster children, manage foster parents, manage selection of foster children, and manage foster data. This application is made by using programming languange PHP and MySQL database. In this application, the admin can see foster children are in foster care by foster parents.

Keywords: Application, Admission Scholarship.