

ABSTRACT

Materials and Management is a scientific techniques and management systems related to Planning, Organizing and Controlling the flow of material, from their initial purchase to destinations that match consumer needs. PT.Genta Trikarya is a company that produces the type of acoustic guitar with the target market domestic and foreign.

PT Genta Trikarya have problems in procurement management process. Meeting the needs for raw materials is the main constraint on the production process does not include the real-time information exists between the warehouse and the division of Purchase, unintegrated some actual process of purchasing facilitate such request for quotation, incoming product, and invoice control.

Implementation of OpenERP modules Purchase Management application useful to comply the need for integration of multiple processes in making business integrated with each other through the features included in OpenERP.

Keywords: Purchase Management, Raw Material, Open ERP, RAD