

Abstract

History is one of the subjects in Indonesia's education curriculum. Starting from Elementary School, students were introduced to this subject. Some purposes of this subject are growing awareness as the Indonesian people who have a sense of pride and patriotism, and foster appreciation of students to the historical heritage.

Learn about history of Walisongo is contained on the curriculum of history subject for students fourth grade and fifth grade of elementary school. However, many students assume that history subject is a boring subject because there is contained excessive of theories. Therefore, it was created an educational game that includes history of Walisongo. The history of Walisongo stories are packaged by a video animation, this educational game is also equipped with some kind of games that aim to make students can understand and remember easily about the history of Walisongo.

In develop this educational game, software that used was Adobe Flash Professional CS 6 that based on Adobe AIR with the programming language Action Script 3.0. This education game of Walisongo can be played on android platform.

Keywords: game, education, walisongo, flash, history, android