

ABSTRACT

In addition to become a support facility, the library is also the heart of the college. It is closely linked to the main function of the library as a source of information. Each college definitely has a library, either the library department nor the central library. There are many universities in Indonesia who respectively establish their central library. Telkom University as one of the private universities in Indonesia has no central library. It is certainly an obstacle to achieving the vision and mission to become international university. So that the efforts of the central library of the university interior design Telkom with modern concepts and themes of modern and innovative learning can fulfill the mentioned vision and mission.

Keywords: Library, International, University of Telkom