

Abstrac

The rapid development of fashion industry today, especially in the big cities and the more conscious people about their look is a challenge for designers to create clothing that is different and has its own character to meet the needs of fashion lovers. In this final project, the author tried to design a fashion collection with the theme of Ancient Egyptian culture.

Ancient Egyptian culture is one of the oldest and most advanced civilization in the world. One interesting thing of Ancient Egyptian culture is clothing of his gods and goddesses that have typical clothing and physical appearance of each. This research was conducted with qualitative methods of literature on various sources and do experiments on many fabric material such as Organdy, Taffeta Bridal, Tulle, beads and other materials with different surface textile design techniques. It is hoped with this research about Designing Fashion Product with Egyptian Theme can add variety to fashion product that has a distinctive character.

Keywords : Ancient Egypt, Fashion, Evening Dress