

ABSTRACT

Regional Training Agency Prov. Jambi whose mission is to improve the competence of personnel. To that end, human resource management (PNS) which is at government agencies can be done by providing education and training and is expected to increase professionalism in the civil service. Web-based information that was developed to facilitate the training of civil servants from beginning to end in full for each stage, such as the registration of candidates, information time and place, the presence and attendance, as well as management training event news reports. SMS Gateway additional features useful as a bridge to the training providers and the training participants to get detail information about the training that will be conducted.

Keywords : The Civil Servant, Web-based information, education and training