

ABSTRACT

PT Banda Ghara Reksa branch Jambi is company that operates to manure data service management and storeroom rent. To finish their work to manure data management they still using Ms.Excel and still using manual counting for staple monitoring process, so that can spend more time and increase error counting risk. Because of that problems so need to make a web software that can support work of employees.

This Web Software is made by Software Development Life Cycle (SDLC) methode, HTML and PHP programming and DBMS MySQL. This software is made for helps employees finish their work to data management easily and faster.

Keywords : Web Aplication, SMS Gateway, Data Management