

ABSTRACT

Hotel Tun Teja is one form of public service that offers a service in the provision of temporary shelter for a period of time. Reservation process is done by came and booked a room, and the hotel is booking data recorded in the order form, accounting reports to be used as a hotel reports manually using the book. This web-based application built with structured programming and use the PHP programming language and MySQL database. This application is provided to solve the problems at the receptionist for the service of visitors and generate accounting reports and also hotel reports. This application aimed to improve customer satisfaction and help ease the work of each employee and minimize the results of the calculation of hospitality services revenue.

Keywords: Hotel Tun Teja, Booking, Accounting Report, Report of Hotel PHP, Web-based applications