

ABSTRACT

The payment application is an application that manages the online payment of fees, which aims to facilitate the recording of data and facilitate the reporting of payments to parents as a user, to support the application of tuition payment is required the input of the admin as the main party in the process. After giving admin rights as a user logged on to the parents, the payment concerned parents can do using a mobile application. This applications built with Oracle Application Express (APEX) which use the SQL programming language as a database of this application. Keyword: Application, Operator, Oracle Application Express, sql