

ABSTRACT

Android application development increasingly demanding public in completing the necessities of life . Starting from life education , entertainment to life in worship . One of the Muslims worship is Hajj . Hajj which is a series of rituals that not every day living, for Muslims who live in need of guidance in course of its worship . This application comes as a medium that provides information knowledge , ranging from the definition of Hajj and Umrah , Hajj History , Law represents the Hajj , the pilgrimage pillar and a mandatory requirement pilgrimage . Through the collection of material and information , development of programming Android applications using the Eclipse IDE , the XML markup language and the Java programming language , MySQL as well as data storage media . Application called Hajidroid is expected to be the application of knowledge in searching for information Hajj pilgrims from Indonesia

Keywords: Hajj, Android, XML (Extensible Markup Language), Java, MySQL