ABSTRACT

Application e-payment to payment counters payment point online bank (PPOB) is application which able to do the transaction pulse electric good telephone pulse and pulse token electricity, in addition this application can pay electricity. Users the application is user that have become a customers and can access android based program, while admin of application can access web-based application. Web app has been built by using php, mysql, xampp, and apache, While android has been built by using phonegap. With the application mobile payment made will help cutomers is payment process transactions are paying electricity, token electric pulses, and the purchase of pulse electric only by the help of smartphone.

Keywords : E-payment, Payment Point Online Bank (PPOB), transactions