

ABSTRACT

Koperasi Syariah Laksana Mekar is a case study of this final project is taken. Koperasi Syariah Laksana Mekar all the process of recording and data processing is done by hand writing. Starting from the member data processing, data processing transactions related to deposits wadiah yadh dhamanah and transactions relating to loans mudharabah. Therefore, the application handles computerized data processing and web-based in order to assist the cooperative management in the operational work of the cooperative.

Applications in this final project using the programming language PHP and MYSQL databases, as well as the waterfall method as a method of workmanship. Results of this application is that it can handle payment transactions, withdrawals and deposits wadiah yadh dhamanah bonus calculation, handle transactions and installment loans mudharabah simultaneously with the recording of the results. In addition, the application will also produce information in the form of reports saving and loan.

Keywords: Koperasi syariah, deposits wadiah yadh dhamanah , loans mudharabah.