

ABSTRACT

Indonesia is the largest Muslim country in the world. Although 88% of the population are Muslims. Muslims in Indonesia are also known for its moderate and tolerant. Muslim women in Indonesia using long dress or Muslim dress and head scarf as an alternative to close the genitals. Along with the development of Muslim fashion in Indonesia, we have encountered many Muslim fashion party users currently wearing Muslim fashion models are still not in accordance with Islamic syar'iah. Fashion party especially the Muslim majority Muslim party dress thin, transparent, and rigorous, so that shows the shape of the body. The majority of them are mothers who come from urban communities who live in the city of Bandung mama, they want to look fashionable and trendy.

In this regard, encourages authors to make women particularly urban communities mama as an object of application design and choose a party dress for urban mama muslim in Bandung while considering Trend Forecasting 2016/2017 Colony particular theme that will be used as the design inspiration, the author will apply the concept Muslim party dress fashion design themed "Ethnic Colony". By combining one element of ethnic cultures that exist in Indonesia, which is the area that has a characteristic Ponorogo peacock. The method used is conducted qualitative Literature is seeking data sources through books and internet journals, Field Study is to choose the location where local designers are Irna Mutiara, Interview is with direct interviewing to the designers and craftsmen. Experiment is to explore various forms of application engineering technique, any material that is suitable to be applied as the unity of the Muslim party dress

Keyword: Fashion, Trend Forecasting 2016/2017, Urban Mama, Manipulating Fabric, Muslim