

ABSTRACT

Bandung is known as the city of flowers, along with the development of the times the city of Bandung was now hailed as a creative city in Indonesia (UNESCO), illustration is an image that the manufacturing process has the technique in the process, particularly in the city of Bandung has many born ilustrator who uses techniques diverse or developed a technique illustrations of the work of any other person before, but the lack of knowledge of the reference illustration techniques are more related to engineering, elements, and the application of the illustrations are still found in some ilustrator young who want to gain insight into developments in creating a masterpiece, but it is known that the benefits reference is a cornerstone in developing or creating new things and are still very rare refernsi related technical illustrations and ilustrators who have differences with each other. Based on the background of the problems found was very interesting to be discussed and appointed as a design topic encyclopedia. The focus of research conducted by the author in the design process that is used descriptive qualitative research focus on, (a) Technical illustrations used, (b) Profile ilustrator, (c) the element of the illustrations used, (d) Application of the illustration (e) Illustration Process. Data searches through photo documentation, interviews and questionnaires. This design aims to explain and ilustrator illustration techniques contained in the city of Bandung as a reference media illustrations and ilustrator. The results of this design will hopefully be useful as a reference for writers and target audience.

Keyword : Illustration, Ilustrator, Encyclopedia, Bandung.