

Abstract

Currently in the news in the country through some news provider very crowded the talk is the case of weakening the KPK (Corruption Eradication Commission) by the agency DPR (House of Representatives) mentioned that the institution DPR (House of Representatives) would like to revise - Act-related performance of the Commission (Corruption Eradication Commission) it would invite the attention of many people because through Revision Act - Act which contains 7 points proposed by the House of Representatives (DPR) very much later mentioned will weaken the function of the KPK (Corruption Eradication Commission)

Detik.com as Online media provider of news articles constantly preach the news of developments weaken KPK (Corruption Pemberantasan Commission) which indicated done by (DPR) House of Representatives through the revision of the Act - Act that will be said will greatly weaken the function of the Commission (Commission Pemberantasan corruption), through this case the authors analyze the existing framing on Detik.com news related to news about the weakening of the Commission by the Parliament, and through ten news authors analyze the role of the news content Detik.com using theories and tools Zhondang Pan and Gerald M. Kosicki

Based on the results of the study authors conclude that the role of the Media Online Detik.com news about weakening the KPK by DPR institutions through the revision of Law - Law Commission is Detik.com role as providers of news articles that almost always makes the news seem positive for the Commission and the content of news from Detik.com also nearly all described that the Society strongly disagree with the decision of the House of Representatives did Revision Act - Act-related performance of the Commission

Keywords: weakening the KPK, Framing analysis models Pan & Kosicki, Online Media Detik.com