

Abstract

Among adolescents aged 11-15 years was an interesting personal and unique, they're no period between childhood to adulthood, so in terms of behavior or character trait to right infantile is still very dependent keada parents and surroundings, but they began to feel that he able to do something and want to be perceived existence, then they want to show that they are independent when in reality they are not sure what to do so that among them a lot of problems. Comics have become a means of delivering messages to various people, not only for the small children. Even now, teens also meggemari good comic comics work of local and translation. From the background that the author wants to introduce the character of young people through comics. Based on the theme of the work of the final project in the form of cultural studies the research method used is a qualitative research method, while the analysis used in the design is the SWOT. Comics that will be created is a comic adaptation of the story of Alice in Wonderland entitled "Dream's World" is packed with visual style of manga, fantasy genre with the main character of a teenage boy named "Milky" is expected to deliver a message to teenagers to always trying to find a way out every problems encountered and should always look at the reality of the conditions around their surroundings.

Keywords: Comics, Alice in Wonderland, Teen, Adaptation

