

ABSTRACT

Web-based applications for the management of student activities is an application that is used to assist the student in managing Telkom university student activities. The application can provide information on the championship that was won by students of Telkom University and also present a report required by the student Affairs in unit Affairs of Students and Alumni Partnership. This application is made by using the method SDLC Waterfall to the implementation stage. Website development of this application form. Applications websites built using PHP and MYSQL. This application is used by Admin, vice chancellor and student activity units. Website development of this application is Web. Admin has the right to manage data proposals, manage the results of activities, manage championship results and manage report activity. Applicants have access rights to submit a proposal, see the development proposal, view the proposal status and input the championship result. With this application, expected part of Student Affairs unit Affairs of Students and Alumni can optimize the submission, verification and communication of the report to the student or the unit itself. From the result of the tests performed, the functionality of the system work as expected, both in the management of the filing of the activities and delivery of information to students.

Keywords: Application, Activities, Web