

Abstract

An orphanage are the institutions that moves in the field of social that is a container or place to care for and guide the unprotected orphan or orphaned. According to deposed Indonesian (2004: 4) , social house child care is an institution social welfare enterprise have a responsibility to offer a service social welfare in a waif to carry out eradication and a waif , the delivery of a substitute for parents child in meet the needs of physical , mental and social to foster care so that have an ample opportunity , right and adequate for the development as expected. As part of the next generation of the nation and as will participate actively in the field of national development .The importance of built a foster home orphans in the namely serves to develop , imparts a social function foster care .For example , the provision of the service , information , consultation , and development of skills for child social welfare. The government and the community in the sectors social having the same purpose , which constitute the character and entitling for waif they did not get from parents. In addition to the give a future more guaranteed by giving training and care so that they can compete in terms of success.

Key Word : Psychology, of Children age 0 -11 years, Formal and Non Formal Education