

ABSTRACT

Danumiahrijo, Nanda. 2016. Directing In Documentary Biography Gian Zola Nasrulloh Nugraha As A Talented Young Soccer Player In Bandung City West Java. Final Task. Study Program of Visual Communication Design. Faculty of Creative Industry Telkom University.

In this documentary film, went from the state of Indonesian football which has degenerated to the present but the young soccer of Indonesian soccer can give hope to his performance. The young soccer player in Indonesia is very talented and gifted, but coaching a young age that still have not been up on the run by federations and clubs. Gian Zola as a young soccer player from Bandung is a result of a coaching club Persib Bandung through training programs Diklat Persib. Gian Zola is a younger soccer player able to achieve national and international achievements, is expected to provide inspiration and motivation for prospective young soccer player in order to continue to practice and ambition the ability to achieve my goals as a professional soccer player. In this biographical documentary uses qualitative method with case study research strategy that produces documentary biography of Gian Zola Nasrulloh Nugraha which tells about the career of a young soccer player. In this essay the author serves as Director , who have an idea and concept of what will be presented in a logical and gives the impression of dramatic right in the documentary biography of Gian Zola .

Keyword : Documentary biography, young soccer player, Persib.