

ABSTRACT

---

Today technology is sophisticated, many places as internet access rapid, even the junior high school was know how to use the internet. But most junior high school students nowadays access internet to open social media, playing games, and and browsing unimportant things also they rarely to find the subject matter . The internet can be useful as a media to find reference about subjects existing or can also as a learning media. Learning media can used to be all subjects as in region language. Region language's subject is very useful for children to know how levels language to be used daily and they know cultural heritage of each region. Region language subject is also useful that in region language be always used and not lost. Hence, it is taked Web application for learn in region language, writer takes the literature study for learn Javanese language and javanese script.

Keyword: Web, Learning Media, Javanese Language