

ABSTRACT

SMA Negeri 1 Dayeuh Kolot is one of the upper secondary level schools that have implemented the Information Technology (IT). It can be seen from the application of wireless facilities in the school environment as a tool to support the needs of information seeker and as a movable media. Learning system in SMA Negeri 1 Dayeuh Kolot is good enough but the process of teaching and learning activities in the classroom are still having some problems, including limited interaction and communication between students and teachers in the classroom and outside the classroom. "Android Based Media Access for English Subject in SMA Negeri 1 Dayeuh Kolot " is an application specifically for the learning of English in SMA Negeri 1 Dayeuh Kolot that include ability grammar, reading, speaking, listening and writing through the android based media access. This application allows the user to do the exercises and tasks according to the prescribed time limit, download materials, see the score, look at the charts work on the assignment. This application uses PHP, MySQL and XML as well as can be run on android environment.

Keywords: E-learning, Mobile Application, Movable
