

ABSTRACT

This application offers the ease and speed in obtaining information about the knowledge of local languages in Indonesia, namely "Regional language translation Application Indonesia Android-based". This application is made by the society in particular that make a visit to another area only for mere pleasure, study or even moved residence'll more quickly and easily blend in with new areas coming in, what's more, this application is run on Android.

This application is able to translate the language of Indonesia into three regional languages namely Minang, Javanese, Sundanese, or vice versa, and between the language regions. Already done public test by requesting a user tried to use the application and then provide testimoninya by way of filling in the questionnaire that we provide. Most have stated that this application is good enough to use.

Keywords : Translation , Ragional Languages , Android, Audio, Mobile Application