

ABSTRACT

Iqra is a method to read Quran. almost every moslems use this method to learn to read Quran. In this method, it consists of 6 levels, each of them can ease us to learn

The information and technology development in mobile device and its application which grows fast, so it will be easier to fulfill the daily necessary. Based on the necessary, programmer has initiative to make a learning application for children which related to read Quran. The application is a learning application which uses android as the operation system, and the purpose is to ease user to learn to read Quran with the 6 levels of method iqra.

In this final project, based on the beta testing we can see that the application is effective, it can motivate users to learn the Al Quran, and useful in everyday life, so it can help user to learn to read Al Quran with Iqra method.

Keyword : Android, Quran, iqra learning