

ABSTRACT

Lampung Province Museum based on its kind is public museum and Is based on its position is provincial museum. The current museum , display system less informative and interactive collection of objects and the museum less support the development of education , conservation , and entertainment. This means that visitors feel bored and saturated when onboard and visitors to the museum less able to understand the sciences contained by objects the collections of effectively.

Based on the description of , appear to be used in the concept of land is redesigning lampung provincial museum with a common theme tapis fun education. As well as applying forms cain tapis motives lampung . The cain is customary pepadun pride and sai batin lampung province , because all of it contained in lampung provincial, that is the norm , customs , culture , trust , and history , notching are inside cain tapis motive.

It is aimed at making system objects display collections that informative and interactive museum on users so as to achieve the purpose museum as a means to educate , conservation and entertainment through display design a collection of objects a collection of the museum. As well as the sciences there are in the collection can tell effectively to visitors .

Keyword : museum , lampung , display system , tapis