ABSTRACT

Every Muslim in the world require halal food information. In order for them to avoid such thing as sin. Because in the Islamic religion, as devout Muslims should only eat halal foods. To be cushioned from sin

And in this modern era, all kinds of food are numerous and varied and wide spread after the development of the food trade in this virtual world universe. We as human beings sometimes do not even know that the food is halal or not due to lack of information.

At this time also began many restaurants or eating places serving food not kosher. Therefore, the Muslim community should be more careful in choosing which restaurant will go later.

With rapid development in the world of cyberspace today, it takes a special web was told the product halal foods and location of restaurants or places to eat only halal food

Keywords: Halal food, web application, food products, restaurant, moslem society