

ABSTRACT

Waste is the remainder of production that can be detrimental to the community, because the waste can only be rubbish and not worth, but if the waste is utilized properly it will be more useful than just be garbage, for example wood waste, wood waste only becomes detrimental to society, but if utilized wood waste can be turned into something of value Therefore the authir intends to make a products from wood waste, using an exploration, and then the result of the exploration will be recommended to be a products that have a visual value or can attract people attention.

Keywords: waste, wood, benefits, visual