

ABSTRACT

Drug addict rehabilitation is a treatment process to free drug addicts from addiction, and during that rehabilitation process counted as a punishment. Drug addict rehabilitation is also one of social protection that integrates drug addicts into orderly social to be free from drug abuse. In dealing with rehabilitation, researcher take Yayasan Serba Bakti Pondok Pesantren Suryalaya as an object who has educational. Program named Inabah for drug addict rehabilitation, teenager mischieves, psychiatric disorder.

This research is qualitative study by adopting ethnography that focus to compile process of therapeutic communications between trustees and abibah during the healing process in Inabah XV Tasikmalaya. And the result of this research comprehensively describe therapeutic communication stage from trustees and abibah starting from introductions up to their terminations.

Keyword: Therapeutic communication, drug addict, inabah