

ABSTRACT

Cimory Stock Center is one of the subsidiaries cimory Group where cimory Stock Center is a place of storage products for sale. Cimory Stock Center located on the street Batu Nunggal Indah No. 3, Mengger, Bandung. The process of selling the cimory Stock Center uses the concept of direct sales and consignment sales. Direct sales are direct sales from the cimory Stock Center with consumers, while consignment sales are sales by the owner of the goods or cimory Stock Center (consignor) entrust the goods to another party or Miss cimory (consignee) for sale at a price stipulated in the agreement. Every transactions sales happened and financial statements as report noted use sales microsoft excel according to record books and have noted according to standard accounting, so that all the transaction must be managed in structured in accordance with procedures accounting to get information more accurate. In to score supplies in a perpetual, accounting for record sales recording consignment use in separate and can be presenting accounting report in the journal, ledger, reports earnings loss as required by the company. In building application use programming oriented objects with programming language Hypertext Preprocessor (PHP), using Framework CodeIgniter and use MySQL database. Method of development application use System Development Life Cycle (SDLC) consisting of Use Case Diagram, Entity Relation Diagram (ERD), a dictionary data and specification the process. With he made application, it will be done testing with the methods Black-Box testing to functionality the applications and the result of testing application finished with the needs.

Keywords: Applications, Consignment, Profit and Loss, MySQL, CodeIgniter.