ABSTRACT

This project serves to make Application support employee achievement decisions that serve to facilitate and assist the work of the civil service agency city of Bandung in the activities of decision making employee achievement election followed by civil servants in the city bandung.Aplikasi supported by the process undertaken for decision making Employees achievers in the city of Bandung still use the manual way can be inaccurate assessment process employee achievement dikota bandung. The method used to create this application is by using the method. Data for decision making. This application is built using PHP programming language, Framework Code igniter and MYSQL database. With this application is expected to realize the process well and also provide convenience to the entire government of Bandung in the journey of interactive documents and the choice associated with the selection of outstanding employees who held personnel department of Bandung.