

ABSTRACT

---

With so many Muslims around the world traveling outside and within the country, accommodation that is PNB Perdana Hotel And Suites On The Park is needed to fulfill needs of Muslim customers, which is one halal food. Food is said to be halal if it meets the laws of sharia. Food is also said to be halal based on the way of processing. A halal food should be processed in a lawful way as well. In this study, the authors analyze how to prepare (mise en place) and halal food processing. The method used by the authors is qualitative and data collection techniques using observation, interviews, and document studies. The results stated that the preparation and processing of halal food should be clean and protected from unclean or dirt. When processing the food must also be based on standard recipe and can distinguish halal and haram food. Understand the principle of halal and haram based on Al-Quran.

Keywords: Food Processing, Mise en Place, Halal Food