

ABSTRACT

The education of preschool is the one of need to support to be grow the child, because when 0-5 years old is the golden age which at that age of thinking skill of the child will grow to shape the character of the child, so they can socialize with the environment. Education in Indonesia they are three education, formal education, non formal education, informal education, and there is also a special education there are like integrative school and inclusive school who tired to provide of service education without discrimination of gender, etchnic, and the one who special needs.

Bandung is metropolitan city in west java and to be the third largest city in Indonesia after Jakarta and Surabaya, Bandung has declared of inclusive provinsial to achieve that problem so we need facilities that can support the child grow of the early age with the kids center for the children and that they can imagine and creativity of their self, so need facilities to support it. Which there are aspects of interior with the safety and pleasant like keep the furniture or the use of color of the room that will impact of the physical, physiological and psychology against children

Keyword : early childhood education, kids center, golden age, inclusive school, bandung and psychologis