

Abstract

Schools to category C in Sukapura, Bandung is a privately-owned institution devoted to children with special needs with Intellectual Disability. Standard facilities and infrastructure used SLB C-Sukapura still the same as regular schools without providing facilities that support the learners to self-reliance. For toward independence, the interior space can be one that can provide convenience, security and trigger initiatives to develop intellectual skills such as classrooms, therapy rooms, counseling rooms and so on.

Keywords: Interior Design, Special School, Special School category C, Schools-C Sukapura, Intellectual Disability Children with Special Needs