

ABSTRACT

Pneumonia until this now is the leading cause of death in toddlers. Furthermore, the disease one of them are caused by his or her father who smoke in home. According to dr. Hafiz Abu Bakar, SpA, toddlers who often exposure to cigarette smoke risky affected by pneumonia. Cigarette smoke is the biggest contribution of the toddlers vulnerable to pneumonia disease pneumonia. He also explained that exposure to toxic substances derived from tobacco. Children in less than 5 ( five ) years old do not have the perfect immune system such adults in general. A father should be more pay attention to his or her child because she or he spends most all her or his time in home and need healthy air.

Keywords: pneumonia, cigarette smoke, toddler.