

ABSTRACT

This research is discussing the news framing done by Kompas.com and Detik.com in making Basuki Tjahja Purnama as the suspect of defamation in religion. The news that had been analyzed from both media is the news published on November, 16th 2016 using the same theme. The analysis method is using Pan and Kosicki framing model. In analyzing, this method used four structures that consist of; Syntax Structure is how the journalist arrange events, Script Structure is how the journalist narrate events to a news form, Thematic Structure is how the journalist express a view on every events to proposition, sentence or the relation on inter-sentence that shape the text comprehensively, and Rhetorical Structure is how the journalist pointing a certain meaning into the news.

The result of this research is pointing to the frame made by Detik.com tend to show their neutral sign although some of the interviewees does not take Basuki Tjahja Purnama's side. Detik.com used appealing sentences as the title, making the readers interested to read the news deeply. Meanwhile Kompas.com made news using positive aspects to Basuki Tjahja Purnama. Sources that used by Kompas.com are mostly people who agrees with Basuki Tjahja Purnama.

Keyword : framing, Pan and Kosicki, Online Media