

ABSTRACT

PT. Telkom Indonesia is one of the largest stated owned company dealing in wireless or wired network, the development of technology and the intense competition in the business world and therefore need an application that can help the business process that exist in PT. Telkom Indonesia specially network area at the area Bandung that is the management of data assets. Applications are made for intended to inventory, map, and data collection of projects and assist in the presentation of data for the central office, the application is made by using the web, html, xampp, apache, and digital maps which uses google maps API. Data used in the form of text, images, and digital maps are used to support the business process, these application can only be used for the benefit of PT. Telkom Network Area Bandung and not for public users.

Keywords : Telkom, Web, Inventory