ABSTRACT

Monitoring application of student competence test score is based on the background of problems that occurred in the case study of SMK Bhakti Kencana Soreang. These problems include difficulties in performing the process of monitoring student grades and difficulty in knowing the percentage of students' graduation and problem evaluation in the learning process quickly. With the application of monitoring value of student competency test is expected to help all the process of monitoring student value quickly and easily. The method used in making this application is to use the waterfall method. The output of this application is expected to perform the process of monitoring the value online. With this application is expected all the process of monitoring the value can be done easily and quickly, and can help in achieving the goals of the organization itself.

Keywords: Monitoring, Competences Test