

ABSTRACT

Online food shop restaurant application in Telkom University area is a website that facilitate students in finding food restaurants in the area of Telkom University. And to help the owner of the restaurant food in promoting the restaurant they had. Online booking feature will make students more easier to order food and drinks in certain restaurants without having to go to a restaurant without worrying about specific circumstances. Features open a new store makes it easy for owners to make their stores each due to fewer strategic location to open a new restaurant. Thus, in this application, students can easily order food and drinks from the various restaurants in the area Telkom University area. As well as for the owners have an advantage in promoting the restaurant they had. The making of the application is with waterfall method. Web base application and framework codeigniter implemented, PHP programming language, and MySQL database as data container.

Keywords: Restaurant, online order, new store