ABSTRACT

Apotek Bona Mitra Keluarga is teh company that shell health products, there are liquid medicine, tablet medicine, capsule medicine and etc. financial staff in managing sales data by manual enter prices into a cash register and not integrated with the warehouse system. It takes three days to recover value added tax out, value added tax in, and calculates corporate income tax. Therefore, created this web-based application. This application using CodeIgniter and MySQL. Preparation and application development using structured methods, which consist of Unified Modelling Language (UML) and Entitiy Relationship Diagram (ERD). This applications generate sales reports, inventory reports, journals and ledgers. This application integrates with purchasing, inventory and value added tax in calculation. With this application financial staff can directly know calculation of sales as well as value added tax out, corporate income tax and financial statements, without having to recapture the previously existing transactions.

Keywords: Web Based Application, sales, value added tax out, and corporate income tax.